

FEATURED

Enhancements in Morse and Historical Library Reading Rooms

Starting June 26, the Morse and Historical Library Reading Rooms will close to undergo a series of small renovations. Enhancements include improved lighting, surface-accessible power outlets, refinished tables, and more. Both spaces are expected to reopen in August.

NEW

APC Discount - Cold Spring Harbor Press

Yale Library has a new APC (article processing charge) discount agreement with Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory Press. Authors publishing in select CSH journals will receive an APC discount of up to $1,700 depending on the journal.

UPDATE

New Location for Privacy Booths

Looking for a private place to study or take a phone call? The Medical Library recently acquired two more privacy booths! All three booths are now located on the E-Level in the study space near the Technology Support Service Center.

EXHIBIT

Global Health Posters

View selections from the Historical Library's international collection of public health and safety posters.

RECENT GRADUATES

Extended Access

Spring 2023 graduates will retain access to the Medical Library and library resources until September 2023.

ALUMNI

Free Resources

View a collection of free health science resources and tools to support clinical practice, consumer health, and research.